DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments, see pages 9-10, filed 8/29/2006, with respect to 9 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection of claims 9-13 has been withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Bougamont et al. 6,634,872.

Bougament et al. disclose a housing cap (5) for securing a dispenser pump to a reservoir (col. 2, ll. 62-64), which comprises an annular body having an upper end and a lower end (see Figure 1 for the location of the annular body), the upper end having an outwardly extending lip (see Figure 1 for location), an outer surface of the lip adapted to sealingly engage a portion of the reservoir (col. 2, ll. 62-64), the lower end having a protrusion (see Figure 1 for location of the protrusion) for engaging the pump at a first location, the annular body defining at least one notch (see Figure 1 for the location of one notch) for engaging the pump at a second location, the lip is defined by a helical area protruding from the annular body as seen in Figure 1, a seal (2).

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 15-19 are allowed.

Conclusion
